February 2015

How's Your Spirit?

Sounds like something you might hear at a pep rally or sporting event.

Our first inclination is maybe to answer this question as we answer others like it. Like the way we would answer the question, "How ya doing?" with a quick "Fine, thank you."

Or, maybe we are caught up in the excitement of sports competition and find ourselves yelling with those around us—"Great!!!"

Most of us equate our spirit with our emotional state—happy/sad, up/down, excited/depressed—you get the idea. We usually prefer to let our emotions—our feelings—tell us how we're doing.

Actually, we believe there are really very few of us who have any idea how our spirits are doing.

We encourage you to think of your spirit as more of your inner self. It is easier than you think to disconnect from this inner self—disconnect from your spirit. That's a real problem because your spirit is where the truthful answer to the question "How are you doing?" resides.

Our feelings may start out connecting with our spirit, but if those feelings are bad it is not unusual to push them into our spirit and lock them away there and hope they never surface again from their spiritual dungeon.

As much as we try to keep them locked up those negative feelings and bad memories learn how to escape. We spend a lot of energy standing guard over our spiritual dungeons.

The saddest thing about turning your spirit into a spiritual dungeon is your spirit is also the place where God is most likely to speak to you. You've heard of the Holy Spirit—God's Spirit. Well your spirit was created to communicate with God's Spirit. That's the Holy Spirit's job.

Opening the doors to our spiritual dungeons can be a painful thing to do. But, it can lead to wonderful outcomes when you realize you have opened the doors to the Spirit of Perfect Love—God's Spirit—The Holy Spirit.

This is exactly what Jesus was speaking about in the opening words of His most famous sermon—the Sermon on the Mount found in Matthew 5-7. We call these opening verses The Beatitudes because Jesus is blessing those who bear these traits.

So, when we think about answering the question "How's your spirit?," we need to remember the first Beatitude; Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit."

This first beatitude is Jesus' invitation to open up the spiritual dungeon deep inside of us—that place we've locked away all the negatives in our life. Jesus is ready to take away all of those dark, negative things so that we may be free to let our spirit speak with God, love God, and feel God's love.

This is what it means to be spiritual—it all begins by giving Jesus the key to your spiritual dungeon and letting Him do what only Jesus can do.

The Season of Lent, the 40 days before Easter, is a time to open your spiritual dungeon. We will be doing some things to help you do that beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 18. We hope you will join us for this time of dungeon diving.

So, how's your spirit? Be honest now. Jesus is asking.

The Holy Spirit Zone

You can contact
Pastor Jim Witherow
by e-mail,
pastor@faithaledo.com

I believe I've played enough football as well as long distance running and cycling to know what it means for an athlete to say they are in the 'zone'. Getting into the 'zone' is the key for most athletes to succeed.

Through long distance running and cycling (one hour was my usual limit) when I wasn't competing, I also found that being in the 'zone' freed my mind to explore thoughts, ideas, and even problems. This was the way I was able to put aside the distraction of fatigue and physical pain.

One particular pre-dawn run I remember more than any other. I was in that 'zone' processing a challenge in my life (details available on request). It wasn't unusual for some of these thoughts to take the form of prayer and I guess that happened.

What happened next is what made that morning's run different from any other before. On that morning a small voice spoke to me and said, "You know." At the same time, every hair on my body stood out and I lost all strength in my legs and had to sit down on the curb.

I had moved from the athlete's zone into the Holy Spirit Zone. The message was clear, I already knew the answer to my problem. I was just looking and hoping for a different answer.

The experience of being in the Holy Spirit Zone actually made my problem seem quite small and insignificant. From that time on I committed to learn and train myself to enter that Holy Spirit Zone.

That first event happened about 10 years before I became a pastor. Like the athlete's 'zone', finding the Holy Spirit Zone takes practice and discipline. It was only through committing myself to that practice and discipline that I heard my call to ministry.

I encourage everyone to find their own path into the Holy Spirit Zone. My life has never been the same since and that's not just a good thing—it's a wonderful thing. I hope you will join me in the Holy Spirit Zone as I will be offering opportunities to get into spiritual shape in the weeks ahead during Lent. The Spirit be with you!

Music Ministry & Events

By johna beth Mohr

February is the month of love. What do I love at Faith?

First and foremost I love God. I thank God each week for giving me this opportunity to be at Faith .

I love leading worship, I love hearing the congregation sing and to give praise thru music.

I love the congregation, you continue to give , and to love others, your passion for Christ is overwhelming.

I love the choir, Musicians of Faith, they always amaze me being a small group of people what they are able to produce and to give to the church thru singing.

I love the praise team. By Grace Alone: Jeff Ferrell and Janette Hahn leading worship, Dan Hall on drums , Sean Edwards, Jeff Mohr and Stuart Pickell on guitar and Josh Childs on bass ~ thru their sound , our music is energized.

I love the audio/power point guys upstairs, they are one of the hidden blessings of Faith. Each week two of them volunteer their Sunday to assist us in our worship experience. Thank you Derek Armstrong, Jon Coon, Keith Coughlin, Chris Demers, and Donald Larsen.

I love our pianist. Charlene each week makes such beautiful music on the piano.

I love teaching at the preschool, the Ladybug Class. I love each day seeing the sparkle in their eyes, and witnessing their willingness to continue to learn.

I LOVE FAITH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ! Sincerely, johna beth

"How Can I Keep From Singing?"

Sunday, February 22 the Worship Team will begin the service with the congregation singing a new praise song to Faith, "How Can I Keep From Singing."

"How Can I Keep From Singing?" is a Christian hymn written by American Baptist minister Robert Wadsworth Lowry. The song is frequently cited as a traditional Quaker or Shaker hymn. Contemporary Christian artist Chris Tomlin clearly was inspired by the song when he wrote his song, "How Can I Keep from Singing" in 2006.

A Texas native, Chris' music of choice while growing up was country. But when Chris' father gave him his first guitar when he was sick with mono, it soon wasn't just honky-tonk he was playing. By age 14, Chris had written his first worship song. But pursuing music for a living wasn't exactly Chris's go-to life plan once he graduated from high school. Confident that God had a plan in mind for his life, but still not really sure what that was specifically, Chris enrolled in college thinking he'd ultimately pursue a career in physical therapy. Of course, God had other plans for Chris.

Mark your calendars and come Sunday, February 22 as we sing "How Can I Keep From Singing."

Derek Armstrong

By johna beth Mohr

What a blessing to have the guys upstairs weekly monitoring our sound and slides. Let's meet one of them, Derek Armstrong.

Derek was born in Fort Worth, Texas, and went to Brewer High School. Interesting fact - all through high school and college Derek played baseball – he was a 3rd base baseball player. He attended Texas Wesleyan and graduated with a major in Business.

Derek is married to Claire, whom he met on a business trip for Lockheed that they both attended in Georgia. He is celebrating his 10th year with Lockheed. They have been married for 6 years. Derek and Claire moved to Aledo to have easy access to her two horses. Claire rides at least 3 times a week and competes 'reining' at least 6 times a year.

Children's Ministry

Elizabeth Boulware Landes, Director of Children's Ministries

welcome!

Please join me in welcoming our newest Staff Member: Elise Melhado joins us serving in the nursery.

Elizabeth: Tell us a little bit about where you are from. Where did you go to high school?

Elise: I graduated from high school a year early in Colorado.

Elizabeth: What do you want to be when you grow up?

Elise: When I grow up, I'd like to be able to pursue my interests and hobbies without restriction. I don't really know into what career that will take me or what I will study in school, but I think those things aren't very important in the pursuit of everlasting joy.

Elizabeth: What are you most excited about with working with the children? Why did you want to apply for this position?

Elise: I love working with children because they are so full of ideas. They think in colors, yet everything is very distinct in their minds; their minds aren't clouded with gray areas. I think adults can learn a lot from children.

Elizabeth: When you have free time, what do you fill it with?

Elise: I fill my free time with anything I have the opportunity to do: theater, skiing, mountain biking, poetry, volunteering, etc.
